

Non-Discrimination Policy

Bluegrass Family Health, in accordance with federal and state law, does not discriminate in the employment of staff or in the provisions and quality of health care services delivered to members on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, creed, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, genetic information (GINA), health status, disability, veteran's status, place of residence, or source of payment.